Subject: Clear Channel Communications in Houston TX

ORIGINAL

Clear Channel own all the rock stations in houston [101.1, 94.5, 93.7] and I'm getting really sick of only hearing the music sponsored by them, Austin does not have that problem, in Austin you can hear real texas rock on a number of independent stations. They are stifling the youth of my city by not allowing them access to new types of music, outside of the corporate mainstream. They own most of the stations in houston [rock, rap, country news, etc] and I would think they are limited by anti-monopoly laws. I just wanted to take the time to make my opinions known to you. the FCC, who should be the correct concerned government entity to express this too.

Thanks for your time!
